Shopping around the town beautiful town of Hudson

The picturesque pedestrian-friendly town was built over 200 years ago based on a traditional village green plan which still today encourages a vibrant downtown.

Foresight and careful planning have helped preserve Hudson's unique character. A variety of architectural styles, from Victorian to Greek Revival to Federal to Italianate, make strolls within the "village" a popular pastime. The town's historic character paired with exciting shopping. An interesting blend of local, regional and national merchants makes shopping on Historic Main Street and in the award-winning First & Main a unique experience
